

MESSAGE BOARD GUIDELINES AND DISCLAIMER

Adapted with permission from Meningioma Mommas
(www.meningiomamommas.org)

Out of courtesy, be mindful of the following:

--Exercise courtesy, especially in regards to the tone of your posts. Treat our family members with respect just as you would like to be treated. Profanity and abusive language are absolutely not permitted.

--Please be mindful of the diversity of our membership with people from around the world of different race, religion, political persuasion and post accordingly. Also, please avoid strong religious overtones. We are not opposed to, "Keeping you in my prayers."

--Please do not use this forum to solicit members for your personal and professional causes, and campaigns. This includes posting links, which promote commercial goods, products and services.

--Please do not solicit donations for other organizations.

--Keep TOPICS on TOPIC. Unrelated topics may be deleted.

--We can't and won't check every post for its veracity or usefulness either. Each of you must also be responsible for how you interpret the information (medical or not) you read if you choose to read it.

--It is recommended you never post your address or phone number.

--Please do not forward on members' emails to anyone else without their permission or send on chain letters.

--Please refrain from posting in CAPS. Many of our members have difficulty reading.

--If your post does get deleted, please don't take it personally and we will not engage in a debate discussing the merits of that post. In the past, explaining our reasons has taken precious time away from far more important issues.

--If for any reason you harass other members your membership will be revoked effective immediately.

If for any reason, you feel you are unable to abide by our MESSAGE BOARD GUIDELINES, you will be deleted as a member and not welcomed back. Joining is voluntary and so is leaving.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.
